

Family Readiness Officer (FRO) Training

The FRO is an active duty member of the unit who serves as the direct link between the Key Volunteer Network and the Commanding Officer (CO). This individual oversees unit family readiness for Marines, Sailors and their families.

Family Readiness Officer training provides all new FRO's information on the organization of the Family Readiness Program and how to establish a Key Volunteer Network.

FRO SCHEDULE 2004

28 January
31 March
26 May 28 July
29 September
3 November

All classes are conducted at Marine Corps Family Team Building, Bldg. 84, from 0800-1130. To register call 451-0176.